

SCHOOL EVENTS

Sarah Ann Jukes

CHILDREN'S AUTHOR

My favourite part of being a children's author is going into schools to chat to children about books, nature and important stuff like looking after our mental health.

As a YA and Middle Grade author, I have something for every classroom - whether you have a class size of 5, or 500!

Get in touch today to chat more about booking an author event for your school or library.

KEY STAGE 2-3 (YEARS 5, 6 & 7)

THE NIGHT ANIMALS

Assembly / Workshop

We'll use our listening skills to uncover the story behind the blurb of this book. In an assembly, we'll start thinking about what our own Night Animals might be and how they could help us with any worries we have. In classrooms, we'll bring our Night Animals to life and write them into our own stories

THE HUNT FOR THE NIGHTINGALE

Assembly / Workshop

We'll learn about the different kinds of birds living around us and how to spot them. We'll also flex our creative writing muscles together and learn about how to make our own stories even better.

KEY STAGE 3-4 (YEARS 8, 9, & 10)

THE WORLD BETWEEN US

Assembly / Workshop

Using empathy and our creative writing skills, we'll step into the shoes of other people and write from their point of view. We'll also look at what life is like when you're an author and the process of getting a book published.

GET IN TOUCH TO BOOK YOUR EVENT

The assemblies and workshops listed above can be adapted for different age groups and classroom environments, but they are all one hour as standard. Get in touch to find out more:
